ROBERT C. LINGAFELTER'S TRIAL CONTINUED ON SATURDAY MORNING

Judge Maxwell is Endeavoring to Have the Evidence Brought Out as Rapidly as Possible—Mr. Webber the Expert Accountant Was on the Stand
Saturday Morning.

In spite of the fact that there has been no unnecessary delay in the trial of Robert C. Lingafelter for forgery, it is likely that it will consume the greater part of next week. Judge Maxwell keeps the attorneys at work, and they do not display a spirit of wishing to draw out the trial unduly. However most of the testimony is technical and in detail, and necessarily consumes a great deal of time.

Mr. John B. Moore, who occupied the witness stand after Receiver Webb Friday afternoon, was shown the ledger of the association, Sec. 18, No. 1, and asked in whose writing the name Theo. Taylor appeared.

"Robert Lingafelter's, in my opinion."

Ledger 2 B, Sec. 65, No. 1, was shown and the handwriting of Robert Lingafelter again identified, in the record of the Floss Wood account. The journal of the bank was shown witness who testified regarding the dates of payments made by a number of witnesses examined earlier in the trial. A second journal, No. 25, of the association was presented to the witness for the same purpose.

Attorney Phil Smythe cross examined the witness regarding these accounts. He asked the witness if he would be able to tell from his memory whether or not any of these orders were paid. "His answer was 'No, without the books I could not have told.' Attorney Smythe also called attention to the fact that in place of the bank stamp on several of the papers marked paid, the documents were marked in lead pencil. It was also called to the witness' attention that in posting the ledger the same was true. In this connection the witness stated that the pencil markings were made on the books shortly before, and in preparation of the Mt. Vernon trial. A number of the orders were shown to the witness, all of which he stated could not have been identified by him if it were not for the pencil figures made by himself and expert Webber, shortly before the Mt. Vernon trial.

"You spoke of James Lingafelter as cashier and manager of the bank, didn't you?"
"Yes."
"When did you find that out?"
"Ever since the bank started he has held that position."
"You testified that whenever Robert desired to have an order cashed he brought it to you, didn't you?"
"Yes, sometimes he did."
"He never had any access to the funds, did he?"
"No."
"Did all of those other people have any access to these funds?"
"Not while I was there."
"Now what do you say as to whether Robert wrote this signature, Sarah Taff?" (Showing the witness receipt 3943).
"I don't know."
"You had just as good an opportunity of becoming familiar with his handwriting as anybody else, did you not?"
"Yes," was the answer.

Receipt 403 was shown the witness with the same reply. Numerous others were shown, with the same result.

"Mr. Moore you're rather interested in having the difficulty in this matter fixed upon the Lingafelters, aren't you?"

"No, sir. I think you've got that wrong. I think they're trying to fix that on me."

Mr. Moore was questioned regarding a check for $500, signed by him with the name of James F. Lingafelter. He stated that the reflection of this fact had been properly cleared by the cross examination in the Referee's court.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Public accountant, A. N. Webber, of Cleveland, was the first witness examined in the Robert Lingafelter case Saturday morning.

"Mr. Webber, what opportunity have you had of familiarizing yourself with the handwriting of Robert C. Lingafelter?" asked the prosecutor.

"I have seen him write many times. I have seen entries that he made on the books."

With reference to the Theo. Taylor pass-book, the witness stated that it showed no entries since 1889. He stated the manner in which the entries were made on the day book. It showing that payments had been made on the account. Receipt 2250, for $92, to R. E. Lumm, was shown the witness, who stated that he went through the

BENEFITS OF PANAMA CANAL

Former Engineer Wallace Believes
They Can Be Anticipated.

WOULD IMPROVE RAILWAY

Equipment He Believes Can Be Furnished for Five Million Dollars, an Expenditure Which Will Have to Be Made in Any Case for Transportation Facilities.

New York, Feb. 10.—According to a statement made by John F. Wallace, former chief engineer of the Isthmian canal commission, the benefits to be derived from the construction of the Panama canal can be anticipated by an expenditure of less than $5,000,000 on the Panama railroad. He said:

"Did you examine Mr. R. E. Lumm's pass-book?"

"I believe I did."

The witness identified the pass-book, and stated that the amounts were not on the pass-book.

Receipt number 6331 for $63 was shown the witness, who testified to the same procedure as in the foregoing instances. Numerous other such receipts were taken up and the witness testified to certain of the entries on the books being in the handwriting of Mary J. Lingafelter.

Mr. Webber's testimony dealt wholly with the entries in the books, and the identification of receipts and pass-books, under the examination in chief by the prosecutor. The testimony was given very much in detail, and consumed a great amount of time. It introduced no new features, however.

Following a short recess, accountant Webber resumed the stand. He was asked by the prosecutor how the pencil marks came on the bank books.

"Mr. Moore put them there by my order," was the answer.

"Under whose orders were you?"

"George P. Webb, the receiver."

The defense began the examination of the witness at 11:30.

"I came here in October, 1902," answered the witness, to a question put by Mr. Phil Smythe.

"Mr. Lingafelter had very little to do with the Building association, didn't he?"

"Only principally with loans."

"After your five months experience as a building association accountant, you came here for $10 a day and board at Hotel Warden?"

"Yes, sir."

"You have never had an opportunity to become a hand-writing expert, have you?"

"No, sir."

"Do you think it would be impossible for a man to disguise his handwriting so that you could not detect it?"

"Yes, that would be possible."

"You might be deceived in this case, mightn't you?"

"It is possible, but the characteristics are so simple."

The witness was shown a paper on which was a specimen of handwriting and asked to identify it. He refused to state, however, in whose hand it was written.

"Isn't it true that all through these books you, yourself have made erasures, interlineations, and changed the figures, on the books of this association?"

"Yes. During this examination."

"Did Webb have an account?"

"I think he did."

"What do you know about his account?"

The account shows that the premiums and interests were paid."

"I'll ask you if you remember an account in this association in the name of Clara Taylor?"

"No, I do not."

"Do you know anything of the account of Mrs. Whitecamp?"

"Yes."

"Do you know any relationship between the account of Clara Taylor and Mrs. Whitecamp?"

"No."

Court adjourned at 12 o'clock until 9 o'clock Monday.

JACK THE STABBER CAUGHT TODAY

Does Not Apply to Alien Workmen on the Panama Canal.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Almost the entire session of the senate was devoted to the consideration of the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, which was passed practically as it was reported from the committee on appropriations. The only discussion in connection with the bill was over an amendment suggested by Mr. Patterson to strike out the provision relieving alien workmen on the canal from the operations of the eight hour law. Mr. Patterson contended that to require men to labor more than eight hours a day in the tropics was inhuman and argued that the requirement would do injustice to American labor. Several senators on both sides of the chamber controverted the position. Two amendments were voted down.

Demand of South Africans.

Capetown, Cape Colony, Feb. 9.—The demands of the colored inhabitants of the Transvaal and the Orange River colonies for full political rights are becoming more insistent. The African colored political association, representing all South Africa, is preparing a monster petition to King Edward, asking for all the political rights enjoyed by the whites, which will be presented in London by a deputation of colored men from South Africa.

TWO CENT FARE LAW IS VALID

Says Prominent Pennsylvania Railroad Attorney

WILL NOT CONTEST IT

BUT IF IT IS FOUND THE ROAD CAN NOT MAKE MONEY

AB APPEAL WILL BE MADE TO THE LEGISLATURE TO EITHER REPEAL OR MODIFY THE LAW.

Pittsburg, Feb. 11.—J. J. Brooks, general counsel of the Pennsylvania Lines, says the company has no intention of contesting the two cent railroad fare law in the courts. "The law is valid," he said, "and we mean to give the rate a fair trial. We do not wish to take off trains, reduce the speed of trains or do anything else that will make the service poorer. If we find we cannot maintain the service as good as at present and make a fair revenue from passenger traffic we will prepare data and statistics to present to the legislature at the next session and will ask for a repeal or modification of the law. It is probable that Ohio will have a railroad commission by that time and the matter ought to be referred to that body. It is believed that other lines will follow Pennsylvania's action."

POLITICAL FRAY.

Half Dozen Men in a Battle on Savannah's Streets.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 10.—Political partisans of two rival local factions had a pistol fight in front of the city exchange. "Babe" Dyer was killed; Frank Nagle, a bystander, was shot through the eye and is in a critical condition; Pat Kearney, a policeman, on duty at the time, was shot through the neck, and C. H. Dryer was shot twice through the legs. "Snatcher" Dyer and Thomas Hewitt, a private detective, are under arrest. Besides those under arrest or wounded, those who are alleged to have participated in the shooting were Harbor Master James McBride, his son, H. T. McBride, who is a clerk in his father's office; Plumbing Inspector Richard McKenna and James Lane, keeper of the police stables. It is not known definitely who fired the shots by which the killed and wounded were struck. The shooting was general and about forty shots were fired.

RACED

Down the Mountain Side With Runaway Locomotive and Saved Their Train Front Destitution.

Laveta, Colo., Feb. 10.—F. W. Vinton and George Matthews, engineers on a passenger train on the Denver and Rio Grande, raced for miles down the steep of Laveta Pass Friday morning to save the lives of hundreds of sleeping passengers. They won.

While the passenger train was crowding up the side of the pass Enginner Vinton saw the headlight of a runaway engine plunging in and out down the steep curves. Vinton cried to Matthews to reverse his lever. Slowly the passenger came to a stop, backed and presently went flying down the hill with the runaway engine plunging after it.

A few miles farther on the runaway caught up with the passenger, but so nicely had the engineers of the passenger gauged its speed that there was no collision, just a slight jar.

EIGHT-HOUR LAW

Does Not Apply to Alien Workmen on the Panama Canal.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Almost the entire session of the senate was devoted to the consideration of the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, which was passed practically as it was reported from the committee on appropriations. The only discussion in connection with the bill was over an amendment suggested by Mr. Patterson to strike out the provision relieving alien workmen on the canal from the operations of the eight hour law. It is quite evident by this move on the part of the railroad company that the railroads in general are determined to make no reduction in wages, and maintain their profits off the people by fares, they will make up by means of wage reduction.

HURL A BOMB INTO A CAFE

Russian Revolutionists Attack Members of the Black Hundred.

TWO KILLED, SCORE MAIMED

Outrage Believed to Be Only a Prelude to Other Acts of Retaliation Between the Two Factions—Vice Admiral Choukain Attacked by a Woman, Who is Shot Dead.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 10.—Vice Admiral Choukain, the commander of the Black Sea squadron, was wounded by a woman who attacked him in his office. A sentry who rushed to the admiral's assistance, shot the woman dead. No statement has been issued relative to the extent of Admiral Choukain's injuries.

General Laneych reports that wholesale arrests of revolutionaries have been made at Chita, in Trans-Balkalia. Among those arrested are 51 soldiers. Large quantities of arms and explosives have been surrendered to the authorities. General Laneych says order has been restored at Chita.

The strife between fighting bands of the revolutionists and the so-called "Black Hundreds," assumed a new phase when a band of 100 surrounded the Cabaret Schlussel Berg Chaussee, on the bank of the Nevy river above the city, and threw a bomb among a assembly of workmen. The band then opened fire on the passengers in the cafe, killing two and seriously wounding 18, of which latter one died while being taken to the hospital. The bomb, which was hurled through a window into the main room of the restaurant, exploded with a terrible noise and demolished almost the entire building. A wooden partition was blown out and much furniture, glassware and crockery was shattered. The ruins were spattered with liquor and blood and pieces of flesh, the whole presenting a sickening sight.

The restaurant had been for some time known as a resort for workmen, who were believed to be in the pay of the police and were accused not only of furnishing information about revolutionaries, but also of sallying out at night and conducting searches on their own account and beating students who were members of the opposition party.

The killing of three workmen at the Puthoff factory and this latest episode are believed to be but prelude to other acts of retaliation and revenge between the two factions.

PRESIDENT

To Those Who Have Not Received Invitations to the Wedding.

Washington, Feb. 10.—President Roosevelt authorized the following statement: "The President and Mrs. Roosevelt ask the kind consideration of many friends who would understand under ordinary circumstances receive invitations to Miss Roosevelt's wedding. The capacity of the white house required that under existing circumstances invitations be limited to the closest kinsfolk, the personal friends of Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth and certain classes of officials in Washington."

FLAMES SPREAD WHILE MEN FIGHT

LITTLETON, W. Va., VISITED BY A FIRE THAT DESTROYS THE TOWN.

Drunken Men Nearly Create a Reign of Terror During the Progress of Conflagration—Loss $250,000.

WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 10.—What a few short hours ago was the town of Littleton, in Wetzel county, W. Va., is now a mass of smoking ruins. It is hard to imagine a more complete destruction.

Conservative estimates place the loss at close to $250,000, and not more than one-tenth of that total is covered by insurance. It was almost 6 o'clock Friday evening before the flames were completely under control. The houses were completely burned in the almost exhausted fire. The blaze started in the attic of A. M. Cow's store, and rapidly spread to the adjoining buildings.

With heavy wind beating against the hill, the fire became one of the most spectacular fires ever witnessed in West Virginia. Flames spread from house to house with a rapidity that one could scarcely follow.

There was absolutely no way to check the onward march of the fire.

Littleton, W. Va., Feb. 10.—It is now practically settled that there were 20 houses in the town in near Oak Hill, Wetzel county, when the explosion occurred there. Eleven were rescued, six bodies have been recovered, leaving 14 dead in the inferno. Some of those received alive are badly injured and two will die.

The fire, which originated in the residence of Fred Dixon, continued to burn throughout the night.

At 12 o'clock the fire was still burning, and the smoke was still visible.

AMUSEMENTS

"Along the Kennebec," a New England comedy drama, now in its third successful season, will be produced at the Auditorium tonight. The play, moulded along the same lines as "The Little Homestead" is W. B. Paton's, whose play, "The Minister's Son," has been an unequalled success. All special scenery will be used in the play which so delighted country life. Plays of this nature are deservedly popular. This play which so well pleased the patrons of the Auditorium on New Year's has been selected by the Stage Hands' Union for its next on this date.

LOUISE DUNBAR, IN "THE LITTLE HOMESTEAD."

AS TOLD IN THE HILLS.
Among those who saw the first performance of "As Told in the Hills," which will play an engagement at the Auditorium Saturday evening February 17, was an Indian named "Little Fox" who was graduated from the Indian school at Carlisle five years ago. One of the prominent characters in the play is named "Little Fox" who as a child saved the lives of a party of emigrants by taking a message of relief from a nearby fort when the emigrants were surrounded.

THE LITTLE HOMESTEAD.

With the coming of "The Little Homestead" to the Auditorium on

MISS EMILY GALE, IN "AS TOLD IN THE HILLS."

Wednesday, February 14, thegoers are promised a treat. The play most prominent character in the play introduces a happy little horse in a New England village, broken up that played by Miss Emily Gale, is through the desire for revenge upon Indian chief, who was adopted by the young husband. It tells of a widow and Mrs. Howard, and reared blind infatuation which leads the woman to her child, as was the Little Fox of the play. The Little Fox in the sorrow and remorse consequent real life who saw the first performance of the play was naturally very too late to atone fully for the past.

How to Cure Rheumatism

I searched the entire earth for a specific for Rheumatism—conquering it I have at last found it in a powder, a powder that could count on one's personal safety, with reasonable certainty. For the cures of Rheumatism are everywhere and general, and rare.

After twenty years of search and experiment I learned of the German medical professor Dr. Shoop, who writes me that he has a powder that cures Rheumatism, including all forms of it, and that it is safe, and can be used with reasonable certainty. For the cures of Rheumatism are everywhere and general, and rare.

I don't mean that Dr. Shoop's treatment is safe, but that it is safe, and can be used with reasonable certainty. For the cures of Rheumatism are everywhere and general, and rare.

which he complimented highly, his appreciation of the work of Miss Gale being especially strong. He met Mr. Slim, the author of the play after the performance, and asked him where he got his ideas for the plot and on being told that it was taken from an old Indian legend that the author had heard while visiting the Southwest three years ago, being told by a medicine man of the Moqui tribe who claimed to be more than 100 years old. Little Fox asked if the character in the play had been named for any particular person. He was told that the name was selected at random. It said although it had not been done by design, he nevertheless wished to regard it as a compliment that so noble a character in the play bore his name. One of the injustices that the white people have done to my race has been done by the many dramatists who have pictured only the worst of the red men in their works," he said. "It has been a great pleasure for me to see your play in which two truly noble Indian characters are presented, and to see that in all their actions they are so true to life. There are many phases to the character of my people that are not understood by the white people because they have never lived among us or looked at life from our point of view. On the other hand the only knowledge many people have of the Indian has been gained from books and plays many of which have been presented in unfavorable views of the characters shown. It is especially gratifying to see such characters as the Little Fox and Pannema in your play presented and interpreted as well as they are by Miss Gale and Mr. Neville, and the good that the general presentation of the play will do my race can hardly be over-estimated."

GIRLS WILL BE GIRLS.

Al Leach, the star of "Girls Will Be Girls," that plays an engagement here on next Friday, February 16, just 33 years ago February 26 last, first saw the light of day in Wheeling, W. Va., and when only seven years of age had to start in life to earn his livelihood. He commenced by being a newsboy and followed that occupation until he was 14 years of age, after which he started to work in a nail factory in his native town and continued on until he was 19 years, when a circus happened along, in want of talent for a side show. Dan Lemon, the proprietor of the Lemon circus, inquiring around public resorts to find out if he could secure some talent, was informed of Leech and his ability as comic singer and good dancer. He sought him out and engaged him after quite a line of arguments, as Al was loath to accept, being of a very nervous temperament and not feeling as secure in his own mind as his friends were that he could fill the bill. Anyhow he accepted and made a great hit both with the management and the entire audience. He however, only stayed with the circus a short time, when he went with a minstrel company; from that he went to Indianapolis, where he became one of the most prominent headliners in the business. It was while he was doing this turn at the Keith theater in Boston that Mr. Wm. A. Brady first saw Leach's very successful act. Brady sent for Jos. Hart, who had Leach under contract, after the show, and in less than one hour from the time they met, Brady had Hart and Leach's signature to a three years' contract. When Leach returned to the theater that evening the news had arrived there before Leech. Mr. Albee, Keith's manager, sought him out in his dressing room and offered Leech and his Three Rosebuds a five year contract at $800 per week. Leech had to decline on account of the Brady contract and that is how Leech advanced from a newsboy to the most prominent star in the musical comedy world. The phenomenal business done by Leech and his company in the comedy "Girls Will Be Girls" for the past two seasons proved the shrewdness of Wm. A. Brady as a theatrical manager. It is undoubted from the financial point of view as almost every attraction he owns plays to enormous houses throughout the entire United States.

THE OTHER SLOCUM CRIMINALS.

The captain of the Slocum is not a scamp, and would not be one if nobody else were convicted of the wanton slaughter of 1,000 passengers 18 months ago. Captain Van Schaick assumed the immediate responsibility for the safety of this multitude of women and children, and he must have known when he took them out in his rotten bulk that he was taking their lives in his hands. That he is one of the oldest of the harbor captains made his responsibility the greater, since he was likely to have a better knowledge of the Slocum's unswiftness. Nevertheless it would be a howling travesty on justice if the men who commissioned Van Schaick and who were primarily to blame for the sacrifice of 1,000 lives to greed and neglect, should escape prison.

And Thompson's safety, who writes me that he has a powder that cures Rheumatism, including all forms of it, and can be used with reasonable certainty. For the cures of Rheumatism are everywhere and general, and rare.

Mrs. Edith Blaney is seriously ill at this writing with pneumonia.

Edwin Mcintosh's team, while hitched to a railing near Mr. S. B. Beesley's store, took flight at ice and snow falling off the slate roof and falling on the horses. The horses broke loose and ran south on Main street, coming in contact with a lamp-post, badly wrecking the wagon. Fortunately no one was hurt, the horses escaping with slight injury.

While Jack Malay was loading coal at S. B. Beesley's coal shed, his team was frightened and ran out on Main street and turning south they struck a railroad signal, breaking the front wagon wheel.

For Killing of Infant.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 10.—Sarah Jones, a 70-year-old woman, was convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of her foster daughter's child within a few hours after it was born. Mrs. Mary Jones, the mother of the dead child, and Frank Jones, the son of the aged woman, are also under indictment for complicity in the murder. The evidence produced at the trial showed that when the child was born the grandmother asked the attending physician to chloroform the babe, which he promptly declined to do. He informed the police of his suspicions and an investigation showed that the child had been asphyxiated with the deadly drug.

Lawson in Washington.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, visited the capitol. He came to the senate wing first, and then went to the house to see Representative McCall, of Massachusetts. Mr. Lawson was the guest of Mr. McCall at luncheon at the capitol, at which Speaker Cannon, Representative John Sharp Williams, Representative William Alden Smith and Representative Littlefield were other guests. Mr. Lawson had a conference with Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin. The senator is a member of the insurance committee which Mr. Lawson organized last summer and the conference was in relation to insurance affairs.

Hermann and Herrera in a Draw. Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 10.—Kid Hermann of Chicago and Aurelio Herrera of Bakersfield, Cal., fought a 20 round draw before the Pacific Athletic club. The fight was an interesting one. With the disadvantages in height, weight and reach to overcome, Hermann fought with superb generalship and cleverness.

From the first to the 15th round Hermann had a decided lead on points, using his left to Herrera's body successfully, especially in the infighting, of which there was a great deal. Herrera, who was stronger and showed the harder punch, tried hard to land his knockout right on the jaw, but did not land it squarely during the entire fight. He staggered Herman several times by hitting him on the back of the neck and head but the clever ducking and quick recovery of the Chicago lad saved him from serious harm.

Missions Destroyed.

Peking, Feb. 10.—A dispatch from Amoy confirms the report of the destruction of the English Presbyterian and Roman Catholic missions at Chang Pu, 30 miles from Amoy, by a mob described as having been composed of Boxers. The damage amounts to $50,000. The American missions were uninjured. Details are lacking. The sentiment in the neighborhood of Chang Pu is hostile to foreigners and it is considered strange that the American missions were not molested, as the boycott of American goods is strong there.

Private Pensions.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The house ground out its usual semi-monthly grist of private pensions, passing in 72 minutes 42 bills for the benefit of veterans who are barred from the general statute. Seventy-five per cent of the beneficiaries are either blind or bedridden. This order, with a number of minor bills and the passage of two amendments to the Philippine tariff act of 1905, constituted the transactions of the session.

NEW BATTLESHIP WAS LAUNCHED

THE DREADNOUGHT, NEWEST WARSHIP OF THE BRITISH NAVY.

Constructed In Accord With Lessons Learned By Experts In Russo-Japanese War.

Portsmouth, Eng., Feb. 10.—The battleship Dreadnought, the newest addition to the British navy and the first warship to be built entirely in accordance with the lessons learned by naval experts from the Russo-Japanese war, was launched from the government dock yards here today.

King Edward pressed the electric button that released the warship, and sent her sliding gracefully into the water without mishap. The Dreadnought is expected to revolutionize battleship construction in the future. Her launching was made the occasion for an unusual patriotic display. Beside the king, prominent court officials and a host of naval experts attended the ceremony, and was a brilliant affair.

None of the naval attaches of the foreign powers was permitted to inspect the battleship. Everything about her has been constructed with the utmost secrecy and the British admiralty intends to make known the way the lesson of Admiral Togo's victories have been turned to account. Great Britain is the only power Japan has permitted to see the secret reports of Togo and his subordinates and the British government alone was allowed to have representatives aboard the Japanese warships during the campaign in the far East.

While Jack Malay was loading coal at S. B. Beesley's coal shed, his team was frightened and ran out on Main street and turning south they struck a railroad signal, breaking the front wagon wheel.

AMERICAN DETECTIVE SECURED EVIDENCE

Which Is Considered Conclusive Against Countess Castellane's Husband.

Paris, Feb. 16.—A clever American detective, employed by the Countess de Castellane, ostensibly as a tutor for her oldest boy, was the means of Count Boni's undoing.

The American had a place in the Castellane mansion and his identity was not in the least suspected by Count Boni. The unostentatious American succeeded in gaining an entrance to Count Boni's "bachelor apartments." Here he found alleged incriminating letters, disclosing that wealthy women contributed largely to the cost of maintaining the expensive and luxurious "Bachelor Club," where Count Boni and his friends held forth.

The evidence secured by the American detective was conclusive enough to warrant the countess in applying to the courts for a divorce. She thereupon gave Count Boni the alternative of accepting a large sum of money with an uncontested divorce or a suit which would bring scandal down around his ears. The Countess Anna persistently spurns all efforts of the Castellane family to induce her to consent to a reconciliation.

The Crescent Skating Rink on South Fourth street is now considered one of the finest in the state and the numerous skating parties as well as the hundreds of Newark people who flock to this new pleasure resort are loud in their praise of the skating floor, which is kept in fine condition and is as smooth as glass. This is owing to the new Henley machine, which was recently secured by the management. It has been the aim of Mr. Patrell, the manager, to cater to none but the best people, and as a result the large crowds that flock to the rink both in the day time and at night are composed of our best citizens. Mr. Patrell has been requested on several occasions to give a masquerade but states that none will be given

The First Step to Relieve the City of Its Dilemma.

City Solicitor Bolton has very timely and properly come to the relief of the city to free it from the clutches of Lewis K. Davis, the "consulting" engineer of the proposed new water works. Mr. Bolton filed a petition Friday with the court of Common Pleas to enjoin the city officials from making any further payments to Davis as compensation and restraining the Board of Public Service from continuing his services as such engineer.

In a recent editorial this paper made the following statement:

"The Advocate still maintains, as it has done all along, that the party chiefly responsible for the predicament in which the city of Newark now finds itself, is one Lewis K. Davis, the shrewd engineer."

"How the city is to be gotten out of its dilemma remains to be seen. But there is a prospect that Mr. Davis can be gotten rid of by court proceedings, and this is the ray of hope entertained by the Board of Public Service."

Mr. Bolton's petition, a synopsis of which was given in these columns on Friday, very ably and forcibly presents the legal questions on which the injunction is prayed for, and Judge Seward lost no time in granting the injunction after the petition was filed.

Mr. Bolton has taken the proper step, and in fact the only practical one, to relieve the city of its present dilemma. Our city, which is without an adequate water system, has been made powerless to construct a complete one by the deplorable methods of an unscrupulous manipulator and irresponsible adventurer.

The City Solicitor's timely action in this matter will be a service to the city, the value of which should not be underestimated.

By all means let our victimized city, which has suffered irreparable injury, be freed from the clutches of Davis, and if a competent and honest engineer can be employed in his place, some way can doubtless be devised by which Newark's effort to provide itself with an adequate water works system can be crowned with success.

Don't miss us. You will miss the bargains. The Great Western.

INDICTMENTS
MAY BE NOLLED

Against Physicians Who Were Charged With Causing the Death of Mollie Taylor.

Zanesville, Feb. 10.—It is highly probable that the indictments against Dr. O. Watson of Woodsfield and Dr. L. P. Farquhar of this city, for complicity in the fatal Mollie Taylor criminal operation, will be nolled and the case never brought to trial.

Prosecutor Power has asked the court to postpone them until the April term. Counsel for the defendants insisted that the cases against the defendants, which have been pending for nearly a year, should be tried at this term. The prosecutor said that he could not go to trial because of the absence of material witnesses, one of whom was in Alaska and the other in the Indian Territory.

The court held that the prosecutor should produce the witnesses and try the case at this term or else the indictments should be nolled. It is not believed the witness can be secured.

All of which resulted in bills being introduced in both house and senate fixing a schedule for all state officers at about the figures of the compensation they now receive, however it may be provided.

The debate, however, paved the way for a salary law for state officials. It laid bare the fact that the "fat takes" added to original salaries of state officials were granted by the Republican legislature Ohio had in unbroken succession for 14 years.

Representative Fitzell (Rep.) of Dayton, made an earnest plea to his Republican colleagues to have the courage to take the matter up at once and make a state salary law that would be fair to the people and to the officials. He urged that there be a departure from subterfuge.

One of the results of the debate was to cut out an item of $40,000 from the fire marshal's appropriation with the consent of Mr. Yost, which turned the joke on Baldwin for unloading responsibility on the Democratic leader.

Representative Eagleton, the Republican floor leader, then came to the rescue and saved the rest of the bill by a vote of 36 to 21. It now goes to the senate.

What will happen there remains to be seen.

Royal Arcanum.
Bayard Taylor Council has arranged for a special meeting to be held on Monday evening, February 12, on which occasion Grand Regent Rubrecht and Past Grand Secretary Lucian Seymour will be present and give some interesting facts concerning the Royal Arcanum.

Bayard Taylor Council in preparing to entertain its members in a royal manner on next Monday evening, February 12, Grand Regent Rubrecht and Past Grand Secretary Lucian Seymour will be present and entertain the members with wit and wisdom, and the committee on refreshments assisted by Bro. Joseph Kuster Jr., will give something extra to those present. "You all had better come." The report of the supreme council for December shows renewed interest and activity in the order. Reaction has set in and more confidence than ever before is the result of the change of fates. Many predicted the downfall of the order, but those who knew by actual experience in fraternal insurance work, commended the stand taken by the supreme council, and now the crisis being over, the Royal Arcanum is better than ever before, strong in membership, financially and adequate rates.

Modern Woodmen of America.

At the regular meeting of Cedar Camp 4727 M. W. of A. a good turn out of the members were present. Fifteen applications for membership were received, balloted upon and elected. The escort found two strangers in the ante room who were admitted and instructed in the arts of Woodcraft.

On next Wednesday night there will be several candidates to be adopted and a large turn out of the members is expected. In the near future another one of those enjoyable lunches will be served. Watch the papers for the date. Neighbors remember that here is no assessment for the month of February, and if you know of a neighbor who is delinquent see him and endeavor to get him to reinstate. If you have any prospective candidates don't forget to send their names in, and Deputy Grand Master will attend to the rest.

There will be 33 candidates and a big event.

The ceremonies will be held in the Greves hall in Croton. Further particulars will be given later.

"One doctor called it ulceration of the bowels, another called it colitis. Another doctor helped me temporarily.

"Then a druggist recommended Peruna and I followed his advice. I took altogether five bottles and I consider myself a well man.

"I am now at work on the farm and feel well all of the time. I eat all I want to and my friends say that I look better than ever before. I will ever praise Peruna for its healing power."

Pe-ru-na Is a Systemic Remedy.

If Peruna proves efficient for catarrh in one place, it will be equally potent in any other place, because it is a systemic remedy.

The people generally are very much misinformed as to the nature of catarrh.

Catarrh is usually believed to be confined to the head, nose and throat. Lately we sometimes hear of catarrh of the stomach and catarrh of the bowels. Seldom, if ever, do we hear of catarrh of any other organs.

It is not because these organs are not subject to catarrh, nor that catarrh of these organs is not a very common disease, but simply because it is not generally known that affections of these organs may be due to catarrh.

KEEP OFF ALL CATARRHAL ILLS BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

Pe-ru-na, the Most Reliable Remedy For All Climatic Ailments.

Mr. Gustav Schmidt, Spring Valley, Ill., writes:

"I had catarrh of the head and throat for over thirty years. It became worse every year. About three months ago I commenced to take Peruna and Manalin, and now I am entirely cured of that troublesome sickness. Your medicine is surely a blessing to mankind. You can truly say that you have not lived in vain, Doctor, and I thank you for the good you have done me. May you enjoy a long life to help suffering humanity."

A TALK TO FARMERS.

THE farmer is the salt of the earth.

Without the farmer, the industrial world with all its flurry and immense wealth could not exist for a day.

It is upon the soil that we all depend for our living.

No matter how far one may be removed from tilling the soil, or how little he may know about the farmer's vocation, he is vitally dependent upon the things which grow in the soil.

Farming is the basis of all wealth and is the bulwark of all civilization.

The farming class is rapidly becoming intelligent and sure-footed in business management.

The reuben and the country bumpkin have disappeared and in their stead a practical well-trained business man, capable of the highest form of commercial activity, has arisen.

Peruna is a very popular medicine among the farming class.

Many a family depends largely upon Peruna as a family medicine and the family physician.

Some farmers are far removed from physicians, and in any case they are far more self-reliant and more liable to depend upon a household remedy than people who live in the cities.

Dr. Hartman, who for many years was a farmer himself, and who still owns and manages one of the best farms in the State of Ohio, is a friend of the farmer, and it is with the farmer that the immense bulk of his correspondence is conducted.

The millions of booklets published and distributed by Dr. Hartman every year circulate chiefly among the farming class.

CONFESION OF A SUSPECT

Slew Farmer Lewis In a Quarrel at the latter's Home.

HIT HIM ON HEAD WITH A LOG

Action Likely on the Part of the Pennsylvania and Other Roads Against the Two-Cent Law—Embezzlement Charge Against a Prominent Attorney—Live News of Ohio.

Warren, O., Feb. 10.—The mystery surrounding the murder of R. K. Lewis, the wealthy stockbroker at West Farmington, O., has been cleared. Charles C. Delgen, a neighbor, who was arrested for the deed, has made a signed confession to Prosecutor Attorney Wilkins. He broke down and confessed that he killed the wealthy farmer and stock dealer whose body, covered with straw and saturated with oil, was found in his burning house three weeks ago. Delgen's story is that he had loaned Lewis $500 and that Lewis had agreed to sell him five acres of land nearby and a horse for $500. Two papers had been signed between them, one showing the agreement to sell the land and the other showing a payment of $700 on the land and $100 on the horse. The night of the murder he met Lewis and walked home with him. Delgen demanded a deed for the property or his money back. Lewis refused both and offered land elsewhere. Finally, Lewis picked up a log of wood. "I don't know whether he was going to hit me with it or put it in the fire," says Delgen. "But I picked up a round, smooth log and hit him over the head with it. Then I hit him three times more."

Tri-Church Conference.
Dayton, O., Feb. 10.—After the meeting of the council of the tri-church conference, its final deliberations, or rather the interpretation and elaboration of the general plan agreed upon at the sessions just concluded, will be submitted to the national conference of the three denominations represented for final approval. Thus actual organic unity will not be in effect for at least three years. The reports of the denominational delegations were read and all were adopted except that, in the declaration of faith, the line: "We cherish the hope of a blessed immortality," was changed to read: "We are assured by His word of a blessed immortality."

Action Against Two-cent Fares.
Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—It is stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad company will commence an action in law soon after March 10, when the law becomes effective, to render inoperative the bill which became a law Thursday, providing for a maximum fare of two cents per mile on Ohio railroads. The grounds on which action will be brought, it is understood, will be that the reduction of the maximum rate to the point named practically amounts to confiscation of property. It is also said that the Pennsylvania company, in this suit, will have the tacit assistance of all other lines affected by the bill.

Memorial to Theodore Thomas.
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 10.—Beginning with a subscription of $5,000 from A. Howard Hinkle, former president of the May Festival association, a fund was started for the erection of a suitable memorial to Theodore Thomas in this city. The memorial will probably be placed in Music hall and it is desired to complete the preliminary work in connection with it before the opening of the next May festival, three months hence.

Lineman Killed.
Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—Falling 25 feet from a cross arm near the top of an electric light pole, Thomas Davis, employed by the Columbus Railways and Light company as lineman, was almost instantly killed while working on Eaton avenue. Davis' skull was fractured and his neck was broken.

Killed by Falling Tree.
Hamilton, O., Feb. 10.—John Huffman, 78, a widower, residing in St. Clair township, was killed by a falling tree. Huffman and a grandson were engaged in cutting down a tree, when it suddenly fell. The tree struck the aged man fair on the top of the head, crushing the skull to a pulp.

Prominent Attorney Indicted.
Lima, O., Feb. 10.—The grand jury indicted John H. Klatte, a prominent attorney of the Allen county bar and a well known politician, on the charge of embezzlement. His client, Mrs. Matilda Dresser, is said to be his victim. Klatte denied the allegation and said he had clear himself.

Poet of the Negro Race.
Charleston, S. C., Feb. 10.—Paul Laurence Dunbar, the poet of the negro race, died at his home here of consumption. For three years he has been seriously ill and for a year critically ill, but he kept at his work intermittently and wrote his last poem for his Christmas book, "Howdy, Honey, Honey," just before Christmas. Mr. Dunbar was born in Dayton, June 27, 1872, and was first a cowboy and then an elevator boy and in his ups and downs for a livelihood practiced writing. His first poem was written when he was seven years old. His first work to attract attention to him was a class poem written for the Steele high school in 1891. His first of a total of 21 books was "Oak and Ivy." His poem best known was "When Malindy Sings," which was written to his mother, whose name is Malinda.

Governor and Inheritance Tax.
Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—Secretary Honck, referring to the printed reports that he was opposed to the unconditional repeal of the inheritance tax law, said: "In all my speeches in the campaign I advocated the unconditional repeal of the inheritance tax law and I stand there now. As for Governor Pattison, in all his speeches during the campaign he demanded its repeal, and since his inauguration he has given no intimation of a change of opinion."

Died From Excitement.

Marion, O., Feb. 10.—The home of Mrs. Nancy Miller at Epserville, O., was burned to the ground. Neighbors discovered the fire just in time to save from incineration Mrs. Miller, who was confined to her bed by illness, but she died from the excitement and exposure.

Born in Ohio.
New York, Feb. 10.—Rev. Samuel Hopkins Hadley, for 20 years superintendent of the old Jerry McAuley institution in Water street, died from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. He was born 63 years ago in Malta township, Morgan county, O.

Struck at Crossing.
Niles, O., Feb. 10.—George Latham, 40, was killed instantly on the Erie railway crossing at Main street, Gerard. He was an employee of the Girard Iron company. He leaves a wife and four small children.

LONGWORTH ILL.

At the Home of His Mother Suffering With a Cold.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, whose marriage to Miss Alice Roosevelt is to take place one week from today, is ill at the home of his mother in this city. Mrs. Longworth stated, however, that the illness is not serious, that there is no reason for concern and she expected her son would be well enough to come down stairs by Sunday. Mr. Longworth has been suffering with a cold for several days and was not feeling very well when he went to the house of representatives Thursday. When he came home in the afternoon the cold had become aggravated somewhat and there was some fever. Mr. Longworth also was suffering from the swelling of a tonsil. On Mrs. Longworth's advice he took to his bed and a physician was called. He has remained in bed since that time. It is announced that the fever has disappeared.

Revenues on the Mend.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 10.—The tide of gold is still setting back into the coffers of the imperial bank. The receipts of the government and especially those from the railroad, are on the mend and the tension of the financial situation, which recently was causing anxiety, continues to relax. The weekly report of the imperial bank covering the period from January 29 to February 5 shows an increase of nearly $20,000,000 in the stock of gold on hand. The amount of paper money accumulated in the vaults of the bank increased during the week to $47,000,000. This currency the treasury officials expect soon to put into the furnace and to retire definitely from circulation another $12,500,000 worth of notes.

SINEWS OF WAR SOUGHT BY TAFT

TO PREPARE FOR POSSIBLE TROUBLE IN CHINA.

No Diminution of Reports of Unrest Among the Natives, and An Outbreak May Occur at Any Time.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Secretary Taft is seeking a war chest for possible military operations in China.

When the time comes for the United States to land a column of infantry and artillery on Chinese territory there will be small chance for preparation or appropriation of money by congress to defray the expense. An army officer, who, within the past few years made an extensive tour of China in the interest of the military information bureau, said to-day:

"The Chinese masses are smouldering and it is only a question of time when the new spirit fostered by agitators will cause the people to burst forth in a seething flame of resentment against foreigners." Secretary Root and Taft are agreed upon the danger of this and the necessity of strong measures by the United States to face the trouble when it arises. The American commercial representatives, diplomats and consuls agents and the missionaries in China form a small army of American citizens whose lives will have to be protected or in case some are sacrificed to the fanatical rage of the awakened Chinamen, whose killing will have to be paid for in something like the ratio of sixty to one, which tradition as signs as the comparative value of the lives of oriental and western whites.

For potential operations in the east, Taft has asked $100,000 from the senate committee on appropriations. This the senate financiers do not appreciate. The senate financiers do not appreciate the urgency of the case and refuses to grant. Taft will now try to obtain the sum through the senate committee on the Philippines. The expense of sending the supplementary forces to the Philippines, now in progress will be defrayed by the normal resources of the war department. Preparations of the brigades in the Philippines, however, in case of a punitive expedition to China is unavoidable, will be extra expense, and the administration wishes at this session of congress to have a fund created for use in this way.

There is no diminution of the reports of troubled Chinese condition arriving at the state department. Each mail adds to the lengthy reports from obscure outlying districts as well as the great centers of population. The missionaries, whose work carries them far beyond the scope of observation by consular representatives, express the deepest concern at the temper of the Chinese masses. They think the disaffection is more deeply rooted and widespread than the Boxer movement of 1900. Present conditions permeate the whole structure of the Chinese polity whereas the Boxer uprising was limited to one class of Chinese. Complaints that the missionaries are in a way responsible for the hatred of foreigners are no longer given much credence. The missionary activity in China while in some instances misguided as contrasted from political viewpoint, is none the less today carefully directed, as so long as the Chinese are willing for the missionaries are no longer given much credence. The missionary activity in China while in some instances misguided as contrasted from political viewpoint, is none the less today carefully directed, as so long as the Chinese are willing for the missionaries to enter the country at all gives little just cause for disapprobation.

The courage of American missionaries is unquestioned, and while they have been known to give false alarm their reports at present are considered here to be entitled to equal credit with the official reports from consuls. It goes without saying that every precaution has been arranged for the gathering and protection of missionaries at the American embassy.

Hero Drowned.
Parkville, Mo., Feb. 10.—L. H. Wagner, 27, of Parkville, Mo., a junior in Park college, was drowned and a dozen persons narrowly escaped death in the Missouri when the ice under a party of skaters gave way. Wagner voluntarily jumped into the water to save a young woman and being an expert swimmer he rescued the girl, but he was chilled so badly that he could not get out of the water alone and in the general work of rescue going on around him, his struggles were unnoticed and he was drowned before his absence was noticed.

Shot-Fires Killed.

Clinton, Ind., Feb. 10.—Andreopha Sills and an unknown man were killed by an explosion of coal dust in the Maple Valley mine. The men were shot-fires and were working in the mine after the other men had gone out. Several rescuing parties were overcome before the bodies of the victims were recovered.
